

If Sinclair
Broadcast Group, Inc. is allowed to
use all of its media outlets to promote
one party and smear
the other, American
elections will become meaningless.

If any corporation
is allowed to demand that subsidiary
outlets replace regular fare with partisan political propaganda and to
selectively block
transmission of information when the CEO feels such news
is bad for his preferred party, the First Amendment
becomes meaningless.

When the labor of all the employees of multi-billion dollar
empires can be directed toward serving the partisan
political agenda of the CEO, then
workers are no more than serfs serving
whatever role the rulers demand.

This is a very dangerous precedent,
and it must be
stopped.
